conjunction coordinates are words that connect phrases, clauses, and other words. In other words, a coordinate conjunction is a form of conjunction that functions to connect an equivalent sentence.

Independent Clause

An independent clause is a clause that can stand alone as a sentence (i.e., it expresses a complete thought). A dependent clauses (or subordinate clause) is one that cannot stand alone as a complete sentence (i.e., it does not express a complete thought).

Remember that a clause has a subject and a verb.

Easy Examples of Dependent and Independent Clauses

In all the examples, the independent clauses are highlighted, and the dependent clauses aren't. Also, in each clause, the subject is underlined and the verb is in bold.

- The patrol had spotted the sniper, who was hiding in an attic.
- Do you know the butcher who went to court on Saturday?
- I am not tidying the dishes unless Peter helps.
- When it rains, the daffodils bow their heads.

Conjunctions (Kata Sambung)

If the subject of a single sentence is different, then the sentence combination does not change in the compound sentence.

Example :

- A. I agreed to go with you. My parents forbade me.
(I agreed to go with you, but my parents forbade me)

Other Conjunctions :

- Because – sebab / karena
- When – ketika / apabila
- Before – sebelum
- After – sesudah
- Until – sampai
- Although – meskipun
